MARKETING DESCRIPTION: Video detailing the NCT bus network around Nottingham including how to buy and use tickets.

WEBSITE: <https://www.nctx.co.uk/>

Hi everyone, I'm Lucy and this is Faris and we are students here at the University of Nottingham.

So today we are going to be showing you how to use the bus services here because we understand that moving to a new city can be really daunting. So, we'd like to show you how to get around.

The main line between University Park Campus and the city centre is the Orange 34 bus, This route loops between the Victoria Shopping Centre in the city and the Portland Building on University Park Campus.

The bus also goes through Lenton, the student village and has stops at QMC for the Medical School and also on University Park campus at George Green library and The Sir Clive Granger Building.

From journeys between Beeston and the city centre use the Orange 36 bus which journeys along the perimeter of University Park Campus.

We're stood here today on University Park Campus outside the Portland Building at East Drive Bus Bay and we'll be boarding the bus shortly.

Obviously, due to COVID-19, your bus experience may be slightly different to usual. You should aim to sit apart where possible and ideally in a window seat. Face coverings are also mandatory for the duration of your journey, unless you are exempt. All details of exemptions are on the Nottingham City Transport website www.nctx.co.uk/safertravel. Hand sanitisers are provided on all services.

Enjoy your journey!

Nottingham City Transport have made it quick and convenient for students to explore the city of Nottingham without breaking the bank. Students are encouraged to pay using the NCTX buses app which offers a £1.70 student single ticket on all routes in Nottingham and a £3.40 unlimited travel ticket for 24 hours. Paper tickets can still be purchased using the exact change from the driver.
